

FILL-IN-BLANK MONOLOGUES

by Japheth Gordon

Write three or four DETAILED lines to fill in the missing dialogue for the following monologue. You may choose whatever surprising confession you wish to reveal about the character. Complete the questions at the bottom and use your answers as a guide for writing and performing.

PARKER

Whoa. I guess the spotlight's on me. Literally. Okay, um, if you want to know about me, I'm just a regular kid.
(alt: a regular person).
My family is... different.
My mom says we're not supposed to talk about it but...
