INT. MRS. CAMBELL'S CLASSROOM - DAY

JAMIE ENTERS, CAREFREE, AND PASSES MRS. CAMBELL'S DESK.

MRS. CAMBELL

Good morning, Jamie. You ready for your big presentation?

JAMIE

Of course I-- Wait, I'm sorry, what?

MRS. CAMBELL

Your presentation on kangaroos. It's your turn to speak in front of the class.

JAMIE

I know what's happening here. This is obviously a nightmare. I'll just wake up and everything will be okay.

A BEAT. JAMIE TRIES TO WAKE UP.

JAMIE (CONT'D)

Aaah! It's real!

MRS. CAMBELL

And we're waiting.

JAMIE

Right. You know, I was just joking about the nightmare thing. Obviously I'm super prepared.

Great.

JAMIE

If anyone should be preparing, it's you, preparing yourself to be amazed.

MRS. CAMBELL

I look forward to it.

JAMIE

Only problem is (COUGHING) I have this really bad cough.

MRS. CAMBELL

Can I get you a glass of water?

JAMIE

You can, but (SICKER) that won't help the fever.

MRS. CAMBELL

We'll call the nurse to come take your temperature.

JAMIE

Wait, miracle! I feel better!

Except, I just remembered that my dog--

MRS. CAMBELL

I thought you didn't have a dog.

JAMIE

Did I say dog? I meant mom. My mom ate my notecards.

MRS. CAMBELL

Your mom eats paper?

JAMIE

(OFFENDED) Yes, and it is a very real problem! My family can't buy magazines anymore.

MRS. CAMBELL

I'm sorry. You'll just have to do your best without notecards.

JAMIE

You're right. So... for my presentation... I decided... I'm doing an interpretive dance.

MRS. CAMBELL

Okay. Whenever you're ready.

JAMIE DOES AN INTERPRETIVE KANGAROO DANCE.

JAMIE

Australia! Hopping! Pouches! Et cetera!

JAMIE FINISHES THE DANCE AND TAKES A BOW, ANXIOUSLY AWAITING MRS. CAMBELL'S RESPONSE.

MRS. CAMBELL

That was... amazing.

JAMIE

It was? (THEN) I mean, of course it was, duh, I worked really hard on it, I'll stop talking now, thanks!
