

INT. SCHOOL HALLWAY - MORNING

Crowded hallway before class. We walk with Riley (14) who nervously takes it all in. (We hear Riley's voice over.)

RILEY (V.O.)

Okay Riley. Just gotta get through these first days and then you won't be the new kid anymore. Smile. Nod. Act normal. Sure, all the kids here look like Instagram models, but that doesn't mean you won't fit in.

(notices MJ)

Is that a real tattoo? How old are those kids?!

MJ and friends wave toward Riley.

RILEY (V.O.)

Oh god - they're making eye contact! Keep it together Riley. Remember what you learned from that documentary about the animal kingdom: Do not let the alpha establish dominance. You need to make yourself look bigger and present a toothy display...

Riley becomes a grinning, wide person and makes things worse.
